Day One – A one day itinerary

Drive north on Route 29 and enter the quaint all-American town of Lambertville, home of the Lambertville House, bed & breakfast – A National Historic Inn. Enjoy dining and the view, at the Lambertville Station, a restaurant and inn located along the banks of the Delaware River. Stroll along the streets and choose from a variety of eclectic antique shops. Meander through the likes of Lambertville Antique Market, the Golden Nugget Antique & Flea Market and the Antique Center at Peoples Store where you can search for treasures of yesteryear. Visit the Coryell Gallery at the Porkyard featuring the works of prominent artists of the Delaware Valley. Explore the Holcombe-Jimison Farmstead Museum, circa 1711, featuring exhibits from 1800 to 1900, (open Sundays 1-4, May thru October). Sample the tasty treats at the River Horse Brewery or one of the many local restaurants or bistros. Venture across the bridge to the town of New Hope, Pennsylvania where you can enjoy the many shops and eateries. Appreciate a wonderful performance at the Bucks County Playhouse or experience a mule driven barge ride on the Canal. Overnight: Lambertville.
